

ACCESSORY OR AGRICULTURAL

When submitting a building permit application for an accessory or agricultural building, the following documentation and information is required.

- A site plan clearly indicating location and setbacks to property lines, septic system and other structures
- 2 sets of construction plans showing all structural elements
- Completed Building Permit Application